WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT OUR LOCAL BODY

Tomorrow, Angela Fearnow is scheduled for knee replacement surgery. Angela asks for prayers for a successful surgery and a complete recovery.

We celebrate with Aaron and Kate Aberson on the birth of their identical twin girls, Quinn Marie and Cadence Jolene, born on June 29. The Abersons are grateful for the support since the girls' premature birth and during the time they have spent in NICU. We rejoice that the girls have been released from the hospital and the family is home together! (OC Campus)

Please continue your prayers for healing for Matt Stark. The CT scan of his neck at his seven week follow-up appointment showed that there has been no healing of the fractured vertebra yet that was injured in his motorcycle accident. This means at least six more weeks wearing the cervical collar. The good news is that the doctor still says that no surgery will be necessary. (OC Campus)

Please be in prayer for the GEMS Girls' Club Leadership Conference that will be held this week (July 27-30) at Dordt College in Sioux Center. This Conference prepares, encourages and trains women to be mentors that reach girls everywhere with the message of Jesus! For more information visit gemsgc.org/conference

Continue prayers for youth and leaders who are attending the Rocky Mountain High youth event this week at the YMCA Camp in Estes Park, CO. For more info and links to sessions, go to www.2017rocky.com

Today we witness and celebrate the baptism of Eli Vanden Hull, son of Dustin and Amy. (OC Campus)
