

WELCOME! We're glad you're here and have decided to join us today!

If you would like more information about Living Water stop by the Welcome Center in the lobby area

TEACHER: Pastor Jason Van Wyk

SCRIPTURE: Acts 4:32-35

SUMMARY: He is risen indeed! Now what? What was it like in the early days after the resurrection? What does it mean for us as we continue to live in a post-resurrection world? From the early pages of the book of Acts, we find some answers to these questions both for the first followers of Jesus and for us today.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

- ⇒ Where are you tempted to settle for lesser power or focus on lesser things?
- ⇒ What might God be calling you to lay down in order to lift up others?
- ⇒ What does it mean that telling the story of the resurrection is central to how we live?
- ⇒ What grace do you think we might find together as we hold onto these things?

LIFE APPLICATION:

- ⇒ Look for areas of division and consider what you might be called to lay down in order to focus on something greater.
- ⇒ Share the story of the resurrection with someone new this week.
- ⇒ Pray that God would give us much grace in our life together as believers.

NOTES:

OUR FAMILY

PRAY: Please continue prayers for April Sunday who has been struggling with heart issues again recently. She is on bedrest at home until she is scheduled for surgery at Mayo Clinic. (OC)
