Whenever possible, she loves to get out under the big blue sky, try new restaurants, travel, and may or may not have an addiction to interior decorating and shoes!

TEACHER: Laurel Bulwalda

SCRIPTURE: Luke 15:11-32

TODAY'S MESSAGE: "Let Me Tell You About My Father"

SERMON SUMMARY: A few Sundays ago, we begin looking at Luke 15, which contains three parables of Christ: the lost sheep, the lost coin and the lost son. In today's story of the prodigal son, we see not one, but two lost sons who were on the receiving end of the unexpected and lavish love of their father. Whether our lost-ness is obvious to the world or hidden in our good deeds, God seeks to set us free and welcome us into the celebration of coming home!
