

WELCOME! We're glad you're here and have decided to join us today!

We pray and expect you will connect with God and have an experience with the Holy Spirit who heals, guides, comforts and saves.

TEACHER: Pastor Garry Nyenhuis

SCRIPTURE: Today, we follow Easter by reading John 20:19-31.

SUMMARY: In this passage, we read of Jesus appearing to the disciples after His death and we focus on several questions:

- Why did the disciples continue to meet? What was it that drew them together? Are there similarities for us today?
- Do we need to question what the purpose of our meeting is? Do we have something that ties us together?

As we attempt to apply these lessons to our lives, could it be that we are called to one or all of the following action steps?

1. What are you scared of? What is it that you haven't handed over to God and are holding on to as a fear? Name it. Write it down. Pray it. Tell God of your fear.
2. What do you need? Not what do you THINK you need, but what do you REALLY NEED? Could it be that you already have it? Think through what this means in your life.
3. What have you been sent to? What have you been tasked with? Have you identified your specific job that God has placed on your life? What are you uniquely positioned to do? Identify it and own it as your calling.

NOTES:

OUR FAMILY

PRAY: Please pray for Angela Fearnow's dad, Bill Kibby, who lives in Oklahoma; Bill is experiencing mini strokes. (SH)

PRAY: Please continue prayers for April Sunday who has been struggling with heart issues again recently. She is on bedrest at home until she is scheduled for surgery at Mayo Clinic. (OC)
