

WELCOME! We're glad you're here and have decided to join us today!

We pray and expect you will connect with God and have an experience with the Holy Spirit who heals, guides, comforts and saves.

TEACHER: Pastor Garry Nyenhuis

Today we look at Acts 4:5-13. Jesus has ascended to heaven. The Holy Spirit has been given at Pentecost. Peter has healed a blind beggar and now is making his defense in front of the courts.

As you hear this account, pay attention to these words:

POWER. FILLED. SALVATION. ORDINARY.

- ⇒ What do those words mean in this story?
  - ⇒ What do those words mean for you today?
  - ⇒ Try writing them out with any thoughts that come to your mind with each.
- Throughout the week, as we think about ordinary becoming extraordinary, look for the "little things" in your life that could be used to do incredible things.
- ⇒ WHAT IF a smile could make someone's day?
  - ⇒ WHAT IF a thank you note could change someone's mood?
  - ⇒ WHAT IF a prayer could move God?
  - ⇒ WHAT IF reading one verse every hour during your day could increase your desire for the Bible?
  - ⇒ WHAT IF? Focus on the little, ordinary things and see what God can do!

NOTES:

OUR FAMILY

PRAY: Prayers are requested for Tiffany Ehrich (Farence) and family as they are experiencing multiple transitions at this time. Tiffany's daughter, Aaliyah, is being discharged from her treatment at Jackson Recovery and will be scheduled for many outpatient services to help her cope with anxiety, depression and addiction. Also there is heightened stress and anxiety with the upcoming anniversary of Tiffany's infant daughter, Selah's, death and the family's move to Le Mars. Please pray for peace and serenity. (OC)

PRAY: Please continue prayers for the Mellema family for a good adjustment and smooth transition for both their biological and adoptive children. Prayers for patience, energy, and communication despite the language barrier for Kristin and Matt. (OC)

PRAY: Please continue prayers for April Sunday who is recovering from surgery at Mayo Clinic. (OC)

THANKS to everyone who has offered their support after the passing of Scott & Adrie's dad, Bill Groeneweg. Our families were encouraged by the many cards, food, prayers, and words of support and we were reminded again what a blessing it is to have a church family. God has been so good through this as He has given us peace with His plan in this, and showered us with the love from so many of you! Scott & Kim, Brady, Dylan, Faythe, and Tait Groeneweg
Adrie & Marla and Trenton Groeneweg
Spencer & Lauren Groeneweg (OC Campus)
